To Register:

Please contact the CSEA Western Region 6 Office at (716) 691-6555 or (866) 568-7734 to register. A light dinner will be provided. It is important to pre-register as the workshop attendance is used to determine the amount of materials and reservations for meals. Reasonable accommodations are available upon request. This workshop is open to members in Regions 5 and 6.

Workshop Description:

This interactive workshop is designed for officers and activists who have completed the basic Steward Workshop. Participants will refresh and sharpen their skills by practicing communication skills, understanding the importance of recruiting and encouraging member involvement, and review how to choose and organize around workplace issues to build the union. Participants must complete this workshop and be appointed by their Local/Unit President to be certified stewards in CSEA.

Who Should Attend:

This interactive workshop is designed for officers and activists who have completed the basic Steward Workshop.

Workshop Goals:

In this workshop participants will:

- Identify leadership characteristics of potential activists
- Understand the importance of recruiting potential activists
- Analyze workplace issues that are important to the union membership
- Comprehend the importance of organizing around an issue
